ACCIDENTS

June 18, 10:10 p.m.
Patrolman Dominick Andiora investigated a two-vehicle accident on Brooklyn Street. Vehicle 1: a 1975 Dodge driven by Francis Wilce, 188 Dundaff Street.

Vehicle 2: a 1975 Dodge driven by Albert Clause, 113 Moon Street, Jermyn. Wilce stated that he was traveling North on Brooklyn Street and did not see Clause stopped on the side of the road. Clause said that he saw Wilce coming at him and pulled to the side of the road and was struck on the front end.

June 19, 4:25 p.m.
Patrolman George Burke investigated a two-vehicle accident on North Church Street and Lincoln Avenue. Vehicle 1: a 1980 Chevrolet driven by Effie Ruth Finney, 108 Cemetery Street. Vehicle 2: a 1976 Plymouth driven by Joseph F. Muldoon, 12 Oak Avenue. Muldoon stated that he was traveling South on North Church Street and turned left onto Lincoln Avenue. He said that he saw Finney before turning but felt that he had enough time to complete the turn. Finney reported that she could not avoid hitting Muldoon.

June 20, 12:20 a.m.
Patrolman Frank Hacken investigated a one-vehicle accident on Cottage Street. The car, a 1973 Pontiac, was driven by Rusty John Nicholas, R. D. 2, Olyphant.

Nichols was traveling east on Route 6 when he crossed the center line and drove into the west lane and then into a telephone pole, which he split in half. Telephone and power services were temporarily disrupted.

June 21, 12:35 a.m.
Two-vehicle accident on Scott Street. Vehicle 1: 1979 T Bird, driven by Dawn Blicher, R. D. 1, Union Dale.

Vehicle 2: 1977 Chevrolet, driven by Esther A. Salvatore, 95 Forty-Second Street. Both vehicles were traveling on Scott Street, going in opposite directions. When approaching a turn that is located on the lower side of Scott Street, both parties stated that they could not negotiate the curve in the road due to the width of the roadway, which caused the collision. Patrolman Frank Critelli investigated.
